

CECIL (SAM) CLUTTON

1909 - 1991

Clutton was a very gifted person as besides being the senior partner in the family's firm of Chartered Surveyors he was a Master of the Worshipful Company of Clockmakers plus he had a large collection of vintage cars. He was an author of books on clocks and cars. He was also very active in the Vintage Sports-Car Club and contributed cartoons for the Bulletin.

HOW DO YOU FILL THE RADIATOR?

A REGRETTABLE INCIDENT.

Clutton cartoons of Wike from the Bulletin, covering the Motor Show of 1952