

VICTOR HICKS

Working 1920's

In the presence of Their Royal Highnesses 192
THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK

AT BROOKLANDS

—Hicks—

JULY 2ND GUY'S GALA
AND MOTOR RACE DAY

The Autocar EVERY FRIDAY 4^D.

The essential weekly paper for every active motorist—News, Sport, Road Tests, New Models, Care and Maintenance, Tendencies in Car Design and Touring at Home and Abroad.

THE LEADING MOTORING JOURNAL

Published by Hiffe & Sons, Ltd., London, E.C.4

Full page motoring theme illustrations in Car Topics magazine circa 1925.

Programme design for Guy's Hospital Gala Day at the Brooklands race Track in 1933. Have seen a reference to a Victor Hicks who died in 2010 who was a graphic designer, and propaganda artist unlikely these are the same person.