

WACKRILL

Working 1910's

9th April, 1918.

The Motor 15

This company Rolls-Royce advertisement appears in The Motor magazine on the 9th April 1918. The signature is difficult to read but looks like Wackrill. Tom Clarke has done some research and it would appear that there was a family of painters/art critics called Wackrill. Which individual completed this work has still to be resolved.
