

MICHAEL REILLY

1898 - ?

Part of a series of cars at night in winter landscape

Best known as a poster artist who worked for the railway companies and London Transport from at least 1926 up to the mid 1950's. Was educated (1923 – 1926) at the Central School of Arts & Crafts in Birmingham. Illustrated brochures and posters for Morris Cars and Commercials in 1930's. Very nice front cover design for The Austin Magazine & Advocate December 1930 Also he painted traffic scenes and used vehicles in his art for example the two paintings above from a series of four works of winter night scenes.

Morris brochure 1931 – Image courtesy of Peter Card – Transport Collector Auctions

Austin Magazine Dec. 1930
Image courtesy of David Whyley