

BURROWS W F

Working 1920's

20

PART ONE.2 EARLY M.G.s A RE-APPRIASAL

The Morris in Filmland.

PLAYING FOR SAFETY.

By BLUEBEARD.

*I am not fond of doing this,
I told our dear producer so ;
He took it very much amiss—
He told me (briefly) where to go.*

*“The brakes might fail ? You think it rash ?
You feel a little out of sorts ?
You dash, you blank, you blank dash dash,
You blank, you've got—*

A MORRIS SPORTS.”

The Morris Garages, Oxford.

Phone 942.

Wire : “Auto.”

The Oxford Times November 26 1926

Unmistakeably a Bullnose 14/28 M.G., referred to as a Morris Sports by The Morris Garages.

Morris Garages advertisement 26 November 1926 in The Oxford Times Image courtesy of Robin Barraclough and Phil Jennings

FURTHER REFERENCE

Oxford to Abingdon by Barraclough and Jennings published Myrtle Publishing 1998

Illustrated a series of early advertisements for Morris Garages in the local Oxford press such as The Oxford Times, The Cherwell or the Issis. The prose/verse is written by Bluebeard. It would seem that Burrows was a local press jobbing artist. Many of these advertisements are reproduced in the book 'Oxford to Abingdon'.