

JOHN HASSALL

1868 – 1948

Produced motoring prints and the well known mascot of a china headed motorist. Also did advertising work for Sternal Oils. Extremely well known for his other advertising work particularly posters. He even started his own art school called the New Art School and School of Poster Design.

