

NORMAN KEENE

Working 1920 – 1940's

A daring feat performed by a police inspector in Buckingham Palace Road, when he jumped from his car at high speed and prevented bandits from escaping.

Colour plate from The Modern World - Book of Motors Image courtesy of Tom Brierley

Front cover for The Motor Owner magazine January 1921 plus illustrated childrens' books with motoring art. Would seem to be an illustrator with a long working life?

FURTHER REFERENCE

THE MODERN WORLD – BOOK of MOTORS by Laurence H Cade published Sampson Low 1949

THE MOTOR PICTURE-BOOK by various authors published Ward Lock circa 1930.

THE WONDER BOOK OF MOTORS 3rd Edit Harry Golding published Ward Lock circa 1937

Plate from The Motor Picture-Book circa 1930
Image courtesy of Tom Brierley