

SAUNDERSON

Working 1930's

THE AUTOCAR.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

JANUARY 16TH, 1931. 23

LEA-FRANCIS cars have character which to the appreciative driver is irresistible. The steering—the gearbox—the brakes—the very response of its engine are all so definitely Lea-Francis. The saloons have a comfort all of their own—the open cars make their drivers kings of the road. Whether it be the 12/40, the "Hyper" or the wonderful new "Ace," drive a Lea-Francis once and you will own one.

LEA-FRANCIS

12/40 from £325. Hyper Sports (supercharged) from £495. 2 litre six from £445. Triplex glass standard. British Goodrich Tyres Standard.

LEA-FRANCIS LTD., COVENTRY. LONDON SHOWROOMS: 222 GT. PORTLAND STREET, W.1.
RETAIL SALES AND STOCKISTS: 118 GT. PORTLAND STREET, LONDON.
OFFICIAL SERVICE DEPT.: EDWARE ROAD, LONDON.

Distinctive signature in that the "S" of son is upper case. Front cover designs for The Autocar magazine Duron Brake Linings 26th August 1933 and Morris cars 30th June 1933.

Advertisement in The Autocar 16th January 1931